We were stopped in our tracks - at least temporarily. Something going on in DC. We are in version 9 of the Action Memo/Special Bulletin as of 1900 tonight but I have hope we will be moving again tomorrow.

Looks like the hold up is water supply not sampling. Its all a bit weird.

Just saw the news that EPA halted delivery after informing residents they would be receiving it. Can either of you update me on this? Alcantara and White speaking to media quite a bit. I don't understand any of it.
